Instructions:

- punch out all the cards, envelopes and file folders from the Teresa Collins Papers.

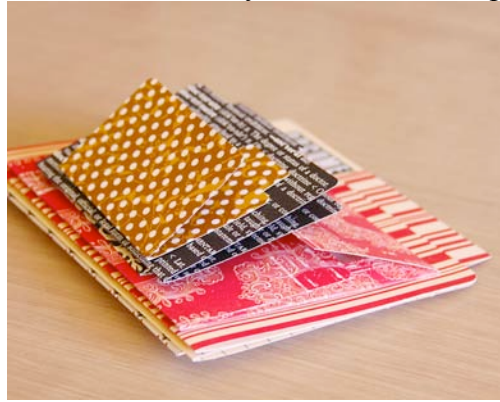

- decide what side of the envelope you want to be the outside and lay that side face down on the Scor-it Board. Score all four flaps of the envelope(s) and then glue the bottom flap. Fold in the two side flaps and fold the bottom flap up and press down for a few seconds to seal.

- score and fold the remaining cards and file folders.

- assemble the pieces in the order that you want them to appear in your book.

- cut the Bind-it-all wire to fit your project.

- center them in the Bind-it-all and punch two or three at a time.
- move the back cover around to the front before you insert the wire (this maneuver will hide the binding edge of the wire).

- insert the wire into you assembled punched booklet. Set the Bind-it-all for the width wire you are using and lower the wire down into the Bind-it-all. Pull the lever down to crimp the wire. Rotate the back cover back to its position.

- embellish with the Teresa Collin's die-cut charms or add your own embellishments and photographs as desired.
